

BENDER CAMPAIGN SETTING

Qater – Earth – Fire – Air. Long ago, the nations lived together in harmony. Then, everything changed when the Fire Nation attacked. Only the Avatar, master of all four elements, could stop them, but when the world needed him most, he vanished.

In his absence, chaos reigns, kept at bay only by brave benders who have taken it upon themselves to fill the void he left...

CLASSES

- The four types of Benders (Water, Earth, Fire, Air)
- Modified Monk (with new Chi Blocker monastic tradition)
- Rogue [pending]
- Modified Fighter (with new Kyoshi Warrior and Swordmaster subclasses) [pending]

SKILLS

This class uses, for the most part, the same skills as regular 5th edition D&D. These are the exceptions:

- No Arcana
- Replace Religion (Int) with Spirituality (Wis) [not propagated through classes yet]

LANGUAGES

Common is the only language in this setting. Thus, whenever a background allows you to learn an additional language, you can instead gain proficiency in a new tool, gaming set, or musical instrument.

OPPORTUNITY ATTACKS

Benders can spend a maximum of 1 chi on their opportunity attacks.

UNDERWATER COMBAT

The usual D&D 5e underwater combat rules apply. More specifically, for bending attacks and forms, the following rules apply:

- Waterbending: Advantage on attack rolls; normal damage.
- Firebending: Disadvantage on ranged attacks, regular roll for touch range. In each case, the attack does half damage if it is dealt underwater (since fully immersed creatures have resistance against fire damage).
- Earth- & Airbending: Disadvantage on melee and ranged attacks within normal range (automatic miss beyond normal range); half damage.

NONLETHAL DAMAGE

- For melee attacks, only slashing, piercing, and bludgeoning damage can be dealt in a nonlethal manner.
- For ranged attacks, only bludgeoning damage can be dealt in a nonlethal manner.

(Thus, for the most part, firebenders are unable to deliver nonlethal attacks.)

PLANES OF EXISTENCE

PHYSICAL WORLD

The physical world, sometimes also called the material world, is the plane of existence on which humans live.

SPIRIT WORLD

There's spirits there.

CELESTIAL TRACKING VARIANT

If your party wishes to accurately track the passage of time and position of the celestial bodies to account for their effects on benders and spirits, your DM can calculate these positions according to the following rules.

These rules are optional.

- Phases of the Moon. In this setting, the period of the lunar phases (the synodic month) is rounded to 30 days and begins with the new moon. The phases are broken down as follows:

- new moon (day 1),
- waxing crescent (days 2-8),
- first quarter (day 9),
- waxing gibbous (days 10-15),
- full moon (day 16),
- waning gibbous (days 17-22),
- last quarter (day 23),
- waning crescent (days 24-30),
- new moon (day 1 of the next cycle).

Waterbenders are strengthened as the moon grows fuller, reaching their peak during the full moon.

- Eclipses. Firebenders lose their bending during a solar eclipse, and waterbenders lose theirs during a lunar eclipse.
- Comets. Individual comets are periodic, but on the whole, the passing of a comet does not follow a periodic pattern and as such it is the prerogative of the DM when a comet passes. Comets strengthen firebenders.

- Day and Night. Firebenders are stronger during the day, when the sun is out. Waterbenders are strengthened by the moon (which may be out during either the day or the night).
- Solstices. On the summer and winter solstice, the physical and spirit world are at their closest during a normal year. Spirits can pass into the physical world without passing through a portal. Conversely, it is most difficult to pass between the worlds without assistance during the equinoxes.
- Harmonic Convergence. Every 1000 years, the planets in the solar system align. During this alignment, the physical world and the spirit world are at their closest.

EQUIPMENT & SPECIAL ITEMS

EQUIPMENT

Name	Cost	Damage	Weight	Properties
Boomerang	1sp	1d6 bludgeoning	1/2 lb	Finesse, special, thrown (range 30/120)
Dart	5 cp	1d4 piercing	1/4 lb	Finesse, thrown (range 20/60)
Fan (closed)	5 gp	1d4 bludgeoning	1 lb.	Finesse, light
Fan (open)	5 gp	1d4 slashing	1 lb.	Finesse, light, special
Shortsword	10 gp	1d6 piercing	2 lb.	Finesse, light
Scimitar	25 gp	1d6 slashing	3 lb.	Finesse, light
Glider	5 gp	1d4 bludgeoning	2 lb.	Versatile, special

BOOMERANG

It always comes back :')

FANS

Taking your fans out or putting them away takes a bonus action. Opening or closing them does as well. You can still earthbend while holding the fans; they augment your bending, increasing your range by 10 feet.

GLIDER

Opening or closing your glider takes a bonus action. When holding the glider in the closed position, you can use it to channel your bending as if it were a free hand.

When the glider is open, you can use a bonus action to fly. Flying requires airbending, so only airbenders will be able to use a glider to fly. You must use 5 feet of ground movement to take off, at which point you gain a flying speed of 60 feet.

Your hands and feet are both occupied when gliding, so if you use them to bend or for another action you must let go of the glider. If you let go with one hand, you must succeed on a DC 13 Dexterity saving throw or lose control of the glider.

You can attempt to carry another other person in addition to you on the glider. In this case, you must succeed on a DC 13 Dexterity saving throw or lose control. The DC increases by 3 with each additional person on the glider.

GUANMAO HAT

This large-brimmed hat is flat and shield-like, allowing the wearer to defuse various attacks by lowering their head. It confers +1 to AC.

HOOKED SWORDS

On a hit, you can make an opposed Dexterity check against the target's Strength. On a success, the target is disarmed and its weapon clatters to the ground in the nearest empty space (your choice if there are multiple options). If the target is wielding more than one weapon, only one of them falls to the ground.

SPIRIT WATER

When used by a waterbender for healing, it restores double the amount of HP granted by healing with regular water.

WATER POUCH

A water pouch holds the equivalent of a 1-foot-diameter sphere of water. It is typically worn on the waist and can be used for waterbending when no water source is within range.

FEATS

These feats can be chosen by any class in a Bender campaign.

TEAMAKER

- Increase your Intelligence or Wisdom score by 1, to a maximum of 20.

- You have advantage on Wisdom (Survival) checks when foraging for tea leaves.
- Once per long rest, if you have tea leaves or herbs available, you can create an infusion laced with healing power. Any creature who drinks it gains the benefits of a Potion of Healing. Drinking more than once from the infusion does not confer any additional benefits.

GUNPOWDER AMATEUR

[Mostly meant for firebenders to interact with gunpowder and use it strategically in tandem with their bending]

BACKGROUNDS

Some backgrounds are nation-specific. Backgrounds that can only be taken by Benders (of the corresponding element) are marked with an asterisk.

ALL CLASSES

These backgrounds can be taken by any class.

REGULAR D&D 5E BACKGROUNDS

FACTION AGENT

Source: Sword Coast Adventurer's Guide

You are a member of a secret order, such as the Order of the White Lotus or the Order of the red Lotus.

Skill Proficiencies: Insight and one Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma skill of your choice, appropriate to your faction

Tool Proficiencies: Pai sho set, disguise kit

Equipment: Badge or emblem of your faction (for example a white lotus pai sho tile), a copy of a seminal faction text (or code-book for a covert faction), a set of common clothes, and a pouch containing 15 gp

FEATURE: SAFE HAVEN

As a faction agent, you have access to a secret network of supporters and operatives who can provide assistance on your adventures. You know a set of secret signs and passwords you can use to identify such operatives, who can provide you with access to a hidden safe house, free room and board, or assistance in finding information. These agents never risk their lives for you or risk revealing their true identities.

SUGGESTED CHARACTERISTICS

Use the tables for the acolyte background in the Player's Handbook as the basis for your traits and motivations, modifying the entries when appropriate to suit your identity as a faction agent. (For instance, consider the words "faith" and "faction" to be interchangeable.)

Your bond might be associated with other members of your faction, or a location or an object that is important to your faction. The ideal you strive for is probably in keeping with the tenets and principles of your faction, but might be more personal in nature.

CLOISTERED SCHOLAR

Source: Sword Coast Adventurer's Guide

Skill Proficiencies: History, plus your choice of one from among Arcana, Nature, and Religion

Tool Proficiencies: Any two of your choice

Equipment: The scholar's robes of your cloister, a writing kit (small pouch with a quill, ink, folded parchment, and a small penknife), a borrowed book on the subject of your current study, and a pouch containing 10 gp

FEATURE: LIBRARY ACCESS

Though others must often endure extensive interviews and significant fees to gain access to even the most common archives in your library, you have free and easy access to the majority of the library, though it might also have repositories of lore that are too valuable, magical, or secret to permit anyone immediate access.

You have a working knowledge of your cloister's personnel and bureaucracy, and you know how to navigate those connections with some ease.

Additionally, you are likely to gain preferential treatment at other libraries across the Realms, as professional courtesy to a fellow scholar.

SUGGESTED CHARACTERISTICS

Use the tables for the sage background in the Player's Handbook as the basis for your traits and motivations, modifying the entries when appropriate to suit your identity as a cloistered scholar.

Your bond is almost certainly associated either with the place where you grew up or with the knowledge you hope to acquire through adventuring. Your ideal is no doubt related to how you view the quest for knowledge and truth - perhaps as a worthy goal in itself, or maybe as a means to a desirable end.

FISHER

Source: Ghosts of Saltmarsh

Skill Proficiencies: History, Survival

Tool Proficiencies: One of your choice

Equipment: Fishing tackle, a net, a favorite fishing lure or oiled leather wading boots, a set of traveler's clothes, and a belt pouch containing 10 gp

Other Proficiencies: Swim speed 30 feet

FEATURE: HARVEST THE WATER

You gain advantage on ability checks made using fishing tackle. If you have access to a body of water that sustains marine life, you can maintain a moderate lifestyle while working as a fisher, and you can catch enough food to feed yourself and up to ten other people each day.

FISHING TALE

You can tell a compelling tale, whether tall or true, to impress and entertain others. Once a day, you can tell your story to willing listeners. At the DM's discretion, a number of those listeners become friendly toward you; this is not a magical effect, and continued amicability on their part depends on your actions. You can roll on the following table to help determine the theme of your tale or choose one that best fits your character. Alternatively, work with your DM to create your own fishing tale.

d8 Tale

- 1 Lobster Wrestling. You fought in hand-to-hand combat with an immense lobster.
- 2 It Dragged the Boat. You nearly caught a fish of monstrous size that pulled your boat for miles.
- 3 Fins of Pure Gold. You caught a sea animal whose fins were made of pure gold, but another fisher stole it.
- 4 Ghost Fish. You are haunted by a ghostly fish that only you can see.
- 5 Nemesis Clam. A large clam containing a pearl the size of your head claimed one of your fingers before jetting away; one day, you'll find that clam.
- 6 It Swallowed the Sun. You once saw a fish leap from the water and turn day into night.
- 7 Dive into the Abyss. You found yourself in an underwater cave leading to the Abyss, and your luck has been sour ever since.
- 8 Love Story. You fell in love with a creature of pure water, but your brief romance ended tragically.

SUGGESTED CHARACTERISTICS

Fishers succeed only if they spend time at their jobs. As such, most fishers have a strong work ethic, and they admire others who earn their living honestly. Fishers tend to be superstitious, forming attachments to particular fishing lures or special fishing spots. They have a connection to the bodies of water in which they fish, and they think poorly of those whose actions adversely affect their livelihood.

FISHER PERSONALITY TRAITS

d8 Personality Trait

- 1 I am unmoved by the wrath of nature.
- 2 My friends are my crew; we sink or float together.
- 3 I need long stretches of quiet to clear my head.
- 4 Rich folk don't know the satisfaction of hard work.
- 5 I laugh heartily, feel deeply, and fear nothing.
- 6 I work hard; nature offers no handouts.
- 7 I dislike bargaining; state your price and mean it.
- 8 Luck favors me, and I take risks others might not.

FISHER IDEALS

d6 Ideal

- 1 Camaraderie. Good people make even the longest voyage bearable. (Good)
- 2 Luck. Our luck depends on respecting its rules—now throw this salt over your shoulder. (Lawful)

- 6 Hard Work. No wave can move a soul hard at work. (Any)

FISHER BONDS

d6 Bond

- 1 I lost something important in the deep sea, and I intend to find it.
- 2 Someone else's greed destroyed my livelihood, and I will be compensated.

MARINE

Source: Ghosts of Saltmarsh

Skill Proficiencies: Athletics, Survival

Tool Proficiencies: Vehicles (water, land)

Equipment: A dagger that belonged to a fallen comrade, a folded flag emblazoned with the symbol of your ship or company, a set of traveler's clothes, and a belt pouch containing 10 gp

Other Proficiencies: Swim speed 30 feet

FEATURE: STEADY

You can move twice the normal amount of time (up to 16 hours) each day before being subject to the effect of a forced march (see "Travel Pace" in chapter 8 of the Player's Handbook). Additionally, you can automatically find a safe route to land a boat on shore, provided such a route exists.

HARDSHIP ENDURED

Hardship in your past has forged you into an unstoppable living weapon. This hardship is essential to you and is at the heart of a personal philosophy or ethos that often guides your actions. You can roll on the following table to determine this hardship or choose one that best fits your character.

d6 Hardship

- 1 Nearly Drowned. You hid underwater to avoid detection by enemies and held your breath for an extremely long time. Just before you would have died, you had a revelation about your existence.
- 2 Captured. You spent months enduring thirst, starvation, and torture at the hands of your enemy, but you never broke.
- 3 Sacrifice. You enabled the escape of your fellow soldiers, but at great cost to yourself. Some of your past comrades may think you're dead.
- 4 Juggernaut. No reasonable explanation can explain how you survived a particular battle. Every arrow and bolt missed you. You slew scores of enemies single-handedly and led your comrades to victory.
- 5 Stowaway. For days, you hid in the bilge of an enemy ship, surviving on brackish water and foolhardy rats. At the right moment, you crept up to the deck and took over the ship on your own.
- 6 Leave None Behind. You carried an injured marine for miles to avoid capture and death.

SUGGESTED CHARACTERISTICS

Marines are looked up to by other soldiers and respected by their superiors. They are veteran warriors who rarely lose composure on the battlefield. Marines who leave the service tend to work as mercenaries, but their combat experience also makes them excellent adventurers. Though they are self-reliant, marines tend to operate best in groups, valuing camaraderie and the companionship of like-minded individuals.

MARINE PERSONALITY TRAITS

d8 Personality Trait

- 1 I speak rarely but mean every word I say.
- 2 I laugh loudly and see the humor in stressful situations.
- 3 I prefer to solve problems without violence, but I finish fights decisively.
- 4 I enjoy being out in nature; poor weather never sours my mood.
- 5 I am dependable.
- 6 I am always working on some project or other.
- 7 I become cantankerous and quiet in the rain.
- 8 When the sea is within my sight, my mood is jovial and optimistic.

MARINE IDEALS

d6 Ideal

- 1 Teamwork. Success depends on cooperation and communication. (Good)
- 2 Code. The marines' code provides a solution for every problem, and following it is imperative. (Lawful)
- 3 Embracing. Life is messy. Throwing yourself into the worst of it is necessary to get the job done. (Chaotic)
- 4 Might. The strong train so that they might rule those who are weak. (Evil)
- 5 Bravery. To act when others quake in fear—this is the essence of the warrior. (Any)
- 6 Perseverance. No injury or obstacle can turn me from my goal. (Any)

MARINE BONDS

d6 Bond

- 1 I face danger and evil to offset an unredeemable act in my past.
- 2 I. Will. Finish. The. Job.

- 1 I grow combative and unpredictable when I drink.
- 2 I find civilian life difficult and struggle to say the right thing in social situations.

- 4 I hold grudges and have difficulty forgiving others.
- 5 I become irrational when innocent people are hurt.
- 6 I sometimes stay up all night listening to the ghosts of my fallen enemies.

SHIPWRIGHT

Source: Ghosts of Saltmarsh

Skill Proficiencies: History, Perception

Tool Proficiencies: Carpenter's tools, Vehicles (water)

Equipment: A set of well-loved carpenter's tools, a blank book, 1 ounce of ink, an ink pen, a set of traveler's clothes, and a leather pouch with 10 gp

FEATURE: I'LL PATCH IT!

Provided you have carpenter's tools and wood, you can perform repairs on a water vehicle. When you use this ability, you restore a number of hit points to the hull of a water vehicle equal to $5 \times$ your proficiency modifier. A vehicle cannot be patched by you in this way again until after it has been pulled ashore and fully repaired.

LIFE AT SEA

Your life at sea and in port has shaped you; you can roll on the following table to determine its impact or choose an element that best fits your character.

d6 Sea's Influence

- 1 Grand Designs. You are working on plans and schematics for a new, very fast ship. You must examine as many different kinds of vessels as possible to help ensure the success of your design.
- 2 Solid and Sound. You patched up a war galley and prevented it from sinking. The local navy regards you as a friend.
- 3 Favored. You insisted on thicker planking for a merchant vessel's hull, which saved it from sinking when it smashed against a reef. You have a standing invitation to visit the merchant's distant mansion.
- 4 Master of Armaments. You specialized in designing and mounting defenses for the navy. You easily recognize and determine the quality of such items.
- 5 Low Places. You have contacts in the smuggling outfits along the coast; you occasionally repair the criminals' ships in exchange for coin and favors.
- 6 Mysteries of the Deep. You experienced an encounter with a possibly divine being while sailing alone. Work with your DM to determine the secret about the deep waters of the sea that this entity revealed to you.

SUGGESTED CHARACTERISTICS

Shipwrights are resourceful carpenters and designers. They often have a dedicated spot at the local tavern, since shipwrights are invaluable to coastal communities. Some travel with naval fleets and might serve as officers if their temperament suits it. Shipwrights have an affinity for working with their hands and often perform feats of carpentry that others might deem miraculous.

SHIPWRIGHT PERSONALITY TRAITS

- 7 I have an endless supply of cautionary tales related to the sea.
- 8 I don't mind getting my hands dirty.

SHIPWRIGHT IDEALS

d6 Ideal

- 1 Crew. If everyone on deck pitches in, we'll never sink. (Good)
- 2 Careful Lines. A ship must be balanced according to the laws of the universe. (Lawful)
- 3 Invention. Make what you need out of whatever is at hand. (Chaotic)
- 4 Perfection. To measure a being and find it lacking is the greatest disappointment. (Evil)
- 5 Reflection. Muddled water always clears in time. (Any)
- 6 Hope. The horizon at sea holds the greatest promise. (Any)

SHIPWRIGHT BONDS

d6 Bond

- 1 I must visit all the oceans of the world and behold the ships that sail there.
- 2 Much of the treasure I claim will be used to enrich my community.
- 3 I must find a kind of wood rumored to possess magical qualities.
- 4 I repair broken things to redeem what's broken in myself.
- 5 I will craft a boat capable of sailing through the most dangerous of storms.
- 6 A kraken destroyed my masterpiece; its teeth shall adorn my hearth.

SHIPWRIGHT FLAWS

d6 Flaw

- 1 I don't know when to throw something away. You never know when it might be useful again.
- 2 I get frustrated to the point of distraction by shoddy craftsmanship.
- 3 Though I am an excellent crafter, my work tends to look as though it belongs on a ship.
- 4 I am so obsessed with sketching my ideas for elaborate inventions that I sometimes forget little things like eating and sleeping.
- 5 I'm judgmental of those who are not skilled with tools of some kind.
- 6 I sometimes take things that don't belong to me, especially if they are very well made.

APPENDIX

USING THE BENDER SETTING

This class is meant to be played in a world in which the only race is Human and in which the typical arcane magic is replaced with spirit magic. As such, it was not meant to be played in combination with any magical D&D classes.

If you want to include this class in a regular D&D 5e campaign, at 6th level bending attacks count as magical for the purposes of overcoming resistance and immunity to nonmagical attacks and damage.

A custom character sheet that reflects the modifications made to regular 5e abilities, skills, etc. can be found here.
